

Andrew Arnold
Project Manager, Professional Services
SureHarvest

Mr. Andrew Arnold manages the Professional Services arm of SureHarvest, where he collaborates with commodity associations and agrifood companies to design and develop sustainable practice programs. Andrew leads the development of Web-based tools to support sustainable practice data collection and benchmarking. Throughout his 20+ year career in the agri-food industry, Andrew has focused on the intersection of information technology and business with experience in strategic planning, product development, project management, marketing, sales, and business development.

Andrew brings experience in using information sharing tools to build collaborative value chains from his work with John Deere's FoodOrigins group. He also managed information systems for the grape supply, logistics, and winemaking sector at E&J Gallo Winery. Andrew earned his B.A. from the University of California-Berkeley and a M.S. from the University of Arizona.
